

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

In this chapter the writer presents the conclusion and suggestion of the study. The conclusion is done based on the result of data analysis and discussion on the chapter IV that is the line with the problem statement. The suggestion is done based on the conclusion, which gained from the result of the discussion. The analysis and suggestion in detail are presented below:

5.1. Conclusion

Based on the result of the data analysis, the writer comes to the conclusion and they are presented below:

1. The eighth semester students of English Study Program of Widya Mandira Catholic University Kupang are able to write a summary of a reading text.
2. Their writing ability is classified as “Very Good”.
3. Common mistake or errors committed by the eighth semester students are on grammar and patterns of sentence, the choice of structure and vocabulary items and mechanics (word spelling, punctuation, and capitalization), the fluency (style and ease of communication), and the form (organization).

5.2. Suggestion

Writing as medium of communication or as an intellectual activity and creativity needs to be encouraged and habitually practiced during course. In English writing course the students should be given more task and time to improve their ability to write a summary of a reading text. The common mistakes encounter by the students regarding grammar, sentences patterns, and the word choice and mechanics should be also considered by the English teacher particularly English writing teacher.
